NO BREAK IN THE FIGHT

Burns and Grant Hold Their Forces---Senator Taylor's Position---The Wright Investigation---Oakland Consolidation Doomed---Bills Introduced.

(Special to The Tribune.)

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 17.—The uneasiness over the situation was manifested this morning by the fact that only three ballots were taken for Senator, instead of four as is customary, and the temper of the convention was such that, had the question been pressed, adjournment could probably have been obtained after the second ballot.

Great pressure is being brought to bear in every direction to bring about a break.

Senator Simpson, who placed Bulla in nomination, has received a large batch of dispatches urging him to vote for Grant.

This is doubtless due to the work of the Grant men who went hurriedly to Los Angeles the other night with the object of influencing matters for the San Diegan if possible.

Grant himself was in evidence at the Capitol this morning, and reports are about of a conversation he had with Hecht of San Francisco in front of the Golden Eagle Hotel this morning.

It is said that he told Hecht that a reaction had set in as a result of the newspaper attacks on Burns, and that he thought the sentiment was swinging towards the Colonel.

The indications that a conference or caucus will be held grow every hour.

The Burns men say it suits them and though none of them are directly interested in bringing about the proposed meeting, they are urging it along.

Senator Taylor and Assemblyman Knowland are angry over the threatening attitude assumed towards them by certain individuals at last night's meeting in Alameda.

Senator Taylor, from whom it was said the nomination for City Attorney would be withheld unless he declared himself opposed to Burns, said that until a direct demand was made upon him he would remain silent.

He, however, stated in a subsequent conversation that he would be consistent, and did not intend to vote for the Colonel.

Howard Wright was absent from his chair as Speaker this morning.

He was busy with his attorneys preparing for the investigation.

HATTON.

WILL FIGHT CONSOLIDATION.

Outlook Is Bad for the Merchants' Bill at Sacramento.

(Special to The Tribune.)

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 17.—Oakland's fight for a consolidation bill is not in a position there that speaks well for its success—in fact, it may be said that the prospects are all the other way. The petition from the Merchants' Exchange and Oakland Board of Trade, containing 2,000 names favoring the proposition was presented to the Senate by Senator Stratton yesterday, and later on was examined by Senator Taylor and Assemblyman Knowland of Alameda. Although upon its face the petition claimed to represent the sentiment of Alameda as well as Oakland, Messrs. Taylor and Knowland, after carefully scrutinizing each signature, declared that only eight of the names subscribed were Alamedans.

"What are you going to do about this proposition?" I asked Senator Taylor.

"What I have always done," he replied, "fight it."

In addition to the opposition of Taylor and Knowland, there is another trouble on hand for the projected measure. When it was under discussion in Oakland the question came up about framing the bill, and it was found that the legal charges for such work would be quite an item. In order to avoid this expense the petition has been sent to the Alameda delegation with the request that the members thereof prepare the bill.

This they positively refuse to do. To get up such a measure will involve a great deal of work, for authorities and so forth have to be consulted, and none of the members can afford the time to do so. The Merchants' Exchange and Board of Trade will, therefore, be positively notified that if they want the bill introduced they must get it up themselves.

HATTON.

DO NOT FAVOR CONSOLIDATION.

(Special to Tribune.)

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 17.—The Alameda county delegation has decided not to introduce or support the consolidation bill for Oakland.

The delegation was polled on the issue with the following result:

For consolidation bill—Stratton.

Against the bill—Taylor, Lenvitt, Mcdonald, Knowland.

Non-committal—McKeen, Bliss, Kelly, Wright.

Three Months for Begging.

A. Carmody got a heavy sentence in the Police Court this morning for begging. Carmody is an old hand at the business and was sentenced to serve three months in the County Jail.

THE BALLOT TO-DAY.

CAPITOL, SACRAMENTO, Jan. 17.—The First ballot to-day (seventeenth) resulted as follows:

BURNS	23
GRANT	25
BULLA	9
BARNES	10
ESTEE	2
FELTON	1
KNIGHT	2
PATERSON	2
SCOTT	1
BARD	2
WHITE	29
DE VRIES	2

No Republican changes. Twelve absentees.

Paired, Absent or not voting are Senators—Boggs, De Vries, Feeney, Leavitt. Assemblymen Camizetti, Glenn, Kelsey, Raw, Wright, Merrill, Miller.

No Republican changes on eighteenth ballot. Democrates continue voting for White.

The Nineteenth ballot resulted in no changes.

The Joint Assembly adjourned by a vote of 64 to 47.

NOW FOR EVIDENCE.

(Special to The Tribune.)

CAPITOL, Sacramento, Jan. 17.—The committee room was packed to the doors at half past two this afternoon—the time set for the Wright investigation, nearly every politician in the Capitol having headed in that direction.

Attorneys Garret McEnerney and Pillsbury were on hand representing the Call and Robert Devlin appeared for Wright.

U. S. Grant was among the spectators.

Meade appeared and announced that he would not serve upon the committee.

He said that a successor to him would have been appointed in the Assembly this morning but for the objection of Judge Dibble.

It was suggested that the committee recommend the appointment of Burnett in Meade's place.

A motion to that effect was carried.

Burnett was one of those foremost in the coyote investigation two years ago.

U. S. Grant was called to the witness stand.

Attorney Bacon of Los Angeles appeared for him and asked for a statement defining the scope of the investigation; whether it was to be specific or general and embracing the whole campaign.

The chairman announced that it is within the province of the committee to investigate all the transactions regarding the campaign of any gentleman who is a candidate for United States Senator, and that the committee would doubtless do so.

Bacon wanted some specific charge made so that Grant would know what course to pursue.

He objected to the calling of Grant as the first witness on the ground that there was no charge against Grant.

He asked that Leake be called first, later. Roxane, who ever since the drag McEnerney responded for John D. Spreckels and W. S. Leake, saying that Mr. Pillsbury is associated with him.

He asked that the Call people be permitted to put in their case and make direct charges.

He said they claimed to be in possession of facts that would substantiate their case.

Assemblyman Melick said he was opposed to attorneys from any body running the committee.

He said he was dead opposed to the Call people coming before the committee and putting in matters that they might need in their libel case.

He did not want attorneys to step in.

He did not believe they should appear but as advisers and not to run proceedings.

Attorney Bacon said Grant was a candidate for United States Senator, and it was unfair to him to ask him to take the stand when no charge had been made against him.

HATTON.

DEADLOCK MAY BE BROKEN.

Effort Being Made to Hold an Informal Caucus of the Legislators.

By GEORGE F. HATTON.

(Special to the Tribune.)

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 17.—There are indications that the end of the Senatorial struggle is not far away. At noon yesterday it looked as if the fight was hopelessly deadlocked, last night no one could see a gleam of relief in any direction, and this morning every one awoke prepared for the monotonous balloting of another day.

The hours did not rolled along very far, though, before it became evident that there was something in the wind. Before the time for the joint convention got around Senators and Assemblymen were noticed in whispered conversation with one another, and it became readily apparent that plans were in progress to get matters out of the rut into which they had fallen since Tuesday last.

The proposition that is being mooted is to have a conference of the Senators and as many Assemblymen as will attend, and to talk the situation over informally and see if there is not some way by which a result can be obtained. Every one is thoroughly sick and tired of devoting two of the best hours each day to answering roll-calls that it is plain to see will result in nothing, and as those who have grown restive under this sort of thing are of the opinion that the candidates themselves are deadlocked, they want to take the matter into their own hands.

It is not proposed to have the gathering a caucus or even anything akin to it. There will be no unit rule and no one will be bound by the proceedings—that is, unless all decide upon a unanimous plan of action and agree to abide by it. Suggestions are being made by those who are working up the conference that are extremely interesting in view of the present condition of affairs, and if any of the plans are put into effect there is liable to be a big upheaval all along the line.

One of the methods proposed to end the deadlock is to give each of the leading candidates an opportunity to produce his full strength—not alone his individual votes, but his natural affiliations. For instance, the idea embraces the giving to Grant the Bulla votes and those of Thomas R. Bard, the other Southern California candidate, and then allowing him two days in which to reach out and try to win. Should Grant fail, then Bulla is to get the Grant and Bard votes and see what he can do, after which Bard will be given his opportunity and then a move made to Northern California.

There are some seemingly insurmountable objections to this plan, though, one of the principal being the apparent impossibility of getting some of Bulla's supporters to vote for Grant. This results from some of the unpleasant features that have entered into the contest down south, and those who know the exact condition of affairs there say that the trouble is of a nature that cannot be smoothed over.

However, there are some of Bulla's men who would gladly consent to such a procedure, in order to relieve the present tension, and it is said that Senators Simpson and Currier are willing to vote for Grant at any moment. As to whether or not Grant's votes could be transferred to Bulla, it may be said that they certainly could not without Grant's consent, for at the caucus held in his rooms the other night his supporters agreed to stand by him until he released them.

One very noticeable feature in connection with these negotiations is that none of the Burns men are interesting themselves individually in the matter; that is to say, they are not doing any work to bring the conference about. It looks, therefore, as if it might be a ruse of the anti-Burns forces to form a coalition against him, and, on the other hand, it may all have emanated from him with the object of effecting some coup that is not now apparent on the surface.

PLANS FOR A CAUCUS.

In addition to these overtures for a conference there are also rumors about that a caucus proper may be held before the week is out. It is said that some of the Grant men have expressed a willingness to go into such a gathering and as the Burns people have been desiring of doing so from the first, it looks as if things may work around that way after all.

It is true that some of the candidates themselves are opposed to the caucus, but even with this so, their supporters argue that it is ridiculous to keep on casting four ballots a day without any results, and that the members should take matters into their own hands to a certain extent.

The delay that is being occasioned to legislation proper is an element that is entering very materially into the discussion, for the way things are going now, the session will not only be an abnormally long one but a big percentage of the business will be sidetracked altogether. It is not alone a case of occupying two hours or so right in the middle of the day—as prime an objection is, that it unsettles business generally, for with so many strings being pulled and so many influences at work, it stands to reason that the members cannot devote their attention properly to their regular labors.

It is safe to predict therefore, that before the week is over, either the conference or a caucus will have been held and in that event it will be a case of "the beginning of the end." Should the conference obtain and the caucus be postponed, it is the intention of those who are going to handle it not to allow it to be tinged as a Burns meeting or a Grant gathering or anything of that kind. It will be an informal discussion pure and simply, with prejudice to none and uncontrolled by any particular faction, so from such a gathering great good should result. No date has yet been mentioned as to when it should be held, but if it is decided on, it will undoubtedly be before the week is over, for everyone is anxious to bring the issue to a head as quickly as possible.

HARD WORK TO GET VOTES.

Meantime, in the camps of the various candidates the fight goes "bravely on." The serene confidence that has distinguished the Burns people from the first seems enhanced rather than diminished and even though those who are nearest and closest to the secrets of the "man of destiny" do not profess to be able to say just where the votes are to come from that will elect him, they declare that everything will line up all right after awhile.

As a matter of fact it must be admitted that to take a list of the Senators and Assemblymen and consider the circumstances and conditions under which each man votes, it seems impossible that either Grant or Burns can be elected. Even admitting that Burns has twenty more votes that will come to him whenever he really wants them, that would leave him fifteen short and everybody knows that it is like drawing eyeteeth to capture one new vote in a Senatorial fight, much less fifteen.

As for Grant, supposing he should be given all the other Southern California votes he would still be 21 away from the goal, so what looks like an improbability in the case of Burns becomes an impossibility in his instance. And yet to hear either the Burns or Grant people talk, one would think that their hidden resources are so vast that when the opportune moment comes they will "walk in," so taking all things together it can be seen that the situation is very strained.

There is one indication though that Burns' strength is very much greater than appears upon the surface and that is that the Grant people are afraid to go into caucus with him lest by some chance he should control it. Now as it would take 42 votes to get a majority in the caucus, and as Colonel Burns' present polling strength is but 25, it can be seen that they practically concede him 17 more votes, that is to say they are inclined to think that he can gather in at least that many more in an hour of need.

THE WRIGHT SCANDAL.

Whether or not the Wright incident is going to cut much of an effect upon the Senatorial outcome remains to be seen. When the stories were first read the general impression was that they were damning to Grant's candidacy for the reason that they conveyed the idea that he had been making a money fight. Now, as the element upon which Grant is to a great extent relying for his election consists of the ultra-respectables, if the idea became established that anything in the nature of a "sack" had actually been used, his strength would fade away in a twinkling.

Not that Grant conceals the fact that he has spent money and has spent it very liberally in making his campaign, for there is no way of concealing it, even if he should desire to do so. His point is, though, that all these expenses have been incurred in getting himself before the people and in aiding in the success of the Republican ticket during the last campaign, and not in putting out money for the buying of votes. There is both a distinction and a difference between these two points, and he wants them clearly established.

Much, therefore, will depend upon how far the researches of the investigating committee go and as that point has not yet been definitely settled by the investigators themselves, it is hard for anybody else to form an opinion upon the subject. They met yesterday afternoon, all being present except Mead, the Democrat, who asked permission to withdraw, and after Chairman Cosper had called them to order they held a desultory conversation as to a plan of action.

Assemblyman Melick of Pasadena, who distinguished himself last session by intercepting and breaking open the box containing the celebrated coyote scalp dispatches, was for going into the whole matter with a thoroughness that would leave no stones unturned. He wanted the committee to not confine itself to the individual case of Wright, but to make the investigation general and see if there had been money used in any instances and if so how and for what purpose.

Wade of Napa thought that it would be a mistake to handle the investigation in that way, for he pointed out that fishing excursions of that description would keep them at Sacramento all summer. He suggested that the committee should simply confine itself to the specific charge involving Wright, and he added that under the resolution that was all the members had a right to do, anyhow.

Melick, however, stuck to his original proposition of wanting to investigate everything and everybody, but after debating the matter for some minutes it was decided to go ahead on the Wright proposition alone, at first, and then if it were deemed necessary by the development, the delving could be more general later on.

With this understanding it was agreed that the chairman should issue subpoenas for Manager Sam Leake of the Call, Ed Hamilton and Ed Morgan of the Examiner, Henry James and L. Levings of the Call, Milton Green and James Brown. Subpoenas were also authorized for Col. Burns and U. S. Grant, with the understanding, however, that they were not to be used unless the developments showed that it was necessary to open up a general investigation. Before adjourning it was announced that the subpoenas would be made returnable at 2:30 P. M. the following day, so at that hour this afternoon the investigation will commence.

There have been few actual developments in the matter, outside of those chronicled in The Tribune yesterday. Howard Wright and Milton Green reiterate their stories, and Manager Leake of the Call continues to stick by his, so it resolves itself into a question of veracity.

Wright is not dodging the issue in any way, but on the contrary, is forcing it, as was shown by his statement on the floor of the House yesterday, his request for an investigating committee, and his filing his libel suit against the Call for $250,000 damages. He says he will fight the proposition to the bitter end, and that by the time he gets through his honor will be completely vindicated.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Dr. Gavigan's sociological bill is to be presented again this session, though in a greatly modified form. He will address the Sacramento City Board of Education on the measure this evening and explain its purport.

Ex-United States Marshal Gard of Southern California is in town.

Tom Williams and Guy Barham are camping here penman-ally, and are doing good, telling work for the Colonel.

Jas. H. Borland of San Francisco is among the visitors.

The Alameda county delegation caucussed last night and Secretary Assemblyman Kelly was authorized to notify all the county officials that they would be given a hearing next Monday evening on matters they may desire to present regarding the county government bill. A new bill altogether will probably be passed this session.

JOHN RUSSELL YOUNG IS DEAD

The Brilliant Journalist and Diplomat Passes Away in Washington.

Associated Press Dispatches by the Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—John Russell Young, librarian of the Congressional Library, died at his residence here at 8:45 this morning, after an illness of several weeks.

Mr. Young has had a notable career as journalist, public official and associate of distinguished public men. He was born in Downington Chester county, Pa., November 20, 1841. He was educated in the public schools of Philadelphia and New Orleans. He secured a place on the Philadelphia Press in 1857 as copy boy. When John W. Forney came to Washington in 1861, to become Secretary of the Senate, he brought along Young, who by that time had become a fluent writer. While acting as Colonel Forney's private secretary Mr. Young continued his writing to the Philadelphia Press. By his description of the first battle of Bull Run he won his spurs as a graphic war correspondent. He followed the army of the Potomac to the end of the Chickahomey region. In 1864 he accompanied General N. P. Banks on the Red river expedition. On his return he became managing editor of the Philadelphia Press, which he resigned in 1865 to start the Morning Post, which, however, was not a success.

He had contributed to the New York Tribune, and his pleasing style attracted the attention of Horace Greely, with the result that in 1866 Young became managing editor of the Tribune. At that time Young was only 25 years old. His leisure he devoted to the study of law, and in 1867 he was admitted to the bar in New York city. In 1870 he again tried the establishment of a newspaper of his own the Standard. About this time, however, Secretary Boutwell, who was at the head of the Treasury Department in President Grant's Cabinet, induced Young to go abroad to study financial affairs. While abroad on this mission the awful days of the Paris commune occurred, and Mr. Young's account of the rise and fall of the commune and of the stirring days through which the French capital passed is regarded as one of the best examples of English writing.

In 1872 he became the European representative of the New York Herald, and spent two years in London and Paris and another year in work and travel on the continent. In 1877 General Grant started upon his memorable trip around the world, and on his invitation Mr. Young joined the party. This made him for two years almost a member of the family of the great General, and a warm friendship sprang up between them. After the return Mr. Young wrote "Around the World with General Grant."

During this trip Mr. Young was specially interested in China, to which country President Arthur sent him in 1882 as United States Minister. He remained in China until the opening of the first Cleveland administration, when he returned to this country and engaged in literary and business pursuits.

When the new library of Congress was completed attention was directed to the choice of a librarian embodying literary ability and executive management, and President McKinley named Mr. Young on July 1, 1897. He entered upon his duties while the library was still in its cramped quarters at the Capitol, and saw it expand into the classic temple of the arts and literature which it now occupies. The transition involved not only a removal of vast stores of precious volumes, but the complete reorganization of the library staff. Mr. Young directed all of this, bringing about the change from the old to the new with smoothness and success. It is said that his time had been spent in part on a contribution to literature which he had hoped to complete as the chief literary achievement of his life.

COURT-MARTIAL FOR GEN. EAGAN

M'Kinley Will Discipline the Assailant of Gen. Miles.

Associated Press Dispatches by the Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—President McKinley announced to the Cabinet at its regular meeting today that he had determined to court-martial General Eagan. Secretary Alger was not present at the Cabinet meeting, but with Adjutant-General Corbin, was at the White House in conference with the President on the subject just prior to the session. The order for the court-martial probably will be made today.

Just prior to the Cabinet meeting General Miles made a rather unusual call upon two members of the Cabinet, Secretaries Hay and Long. He had just returned to the city from New York, and when spoken to with reference to the Eagan case, he adhered to his original declaration, that this was not a time for him to act, if at all, leaving the implication that if the commission or the administration did not act it would then be time for him to take some steps.

AGAINST THE STAMP SYSTEM.

Proposition to Pass a a Law Doing Away With Business.

The following communication has been received by the Board of Trade and Merchants' Exchange of this city:

"Gentlemen: Knowing your deep interest in the question of trading stamps, we send you herewith a copy of an act governing the same, as passed by the Legislature of Vermont. If you consider this act sufficient to effect the abolition of the evil, and believe that it should be adopted by the Legislature of California now in session, please advise us as soon as possible, and steps will be taken to effect this end.

"In this connection, permit us to call your attention to the new charter of San Francisco now in the hands of the Legislature of the State. All cities of California are interested in this question. The charter of San Francisco was duly ratified by the people of this city at an election last May. It is the almost unanimous sentiment of the people of this city that this charter should now be promptly confirmed by the Legislature.

"The Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association of Los Angeles, has adopted resolutions requesting their delegation in the Legislature to vote for the approval of the charter of San Francisco. Your organization can now render a valuable service by passing resolutions to the same effect. Such an act on the part of your organization would be deeply appreciated by the Merchants' Association of San Francisco.

"Hoping that such action will be taken without delay, and that you will kindly advise us thereof, we remain,

Very truly yours,

"MERCHANTS' ASSOCIATION OF SAN FRANCISCO."

The act referred to is as follows:

"An Act to Prohibit the Issuance or Use of Trading Stamps. Passed by the Legislature of Vermont, to take effect January 22, 1899.

"Section 1.—No person or company shall, in the sale, exchange or disposition of any property, give or deliver in connection therewith, or in consideration of said sale, exchange, or disposition, any stamp, coupon or other device, which entitles the purchaser or receiver of said property, or any other person, to demand or receive from any person or company, other than the person making said sale, exchange or disposition, any other property than that actually sold or exchanged; and no person or company other than the person so selling or disposing of property, shall deliver any goods, wares or merchandise upon the presentation of said stamp, coupon or other device.

"Section 2.—Any person or company who violates any provision of the foregoing section shall for each offense be punished by a fine of not less than twenty nor more than five hundred dollars."

JUDGMENT FOR A LARGE SUM.

A $15,000 judgment was rendered this morning by Judge Ellsworth in favor of Josephine F. Burguere against the heirs of the Livermore estate.

The suit was brought to recover on a promissory note executed by Charles E. and Horatio B. Livermore. In November of 1857 Chas. Livermore died and the note remained unpaid. Action was then brought to foreclose the mortgage securing the note.

The mortgage covers the whole estate, including thirty-two acres in Rockridge tract and two other lots in this city. W. S. Harlow has been appointed to sell the property.

ASK YOUR GROCER

Iowa Sheriff Sets the San Jose Officers to Guessing.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

SAN JOSE, Cal., Jan. 17.—Sheriff Langford, who on January 1st succeeded Lyndon as Sheriff, has received an important letter from Sheriff Smith at Burlington, Iowa. Lyndon has had considerable correspondence with the Iowa officer prior to the close of his term. The letter which Langford has received is dated at Burlington January 12th, and in it the Iowa Sheriff insists that the man held is Dunham. Among other things he says:

"To the best belief of myself and others, he is no other than James C. Dunham. The photograph sent you, which prompted your message to me, were the most imperfect likenesses. The prisoner contracted his brow until wrinkles appeared, drew in his lips, combed his mustache over his mouth, stared and otherwise distorted his features until no actual resemblance could be secured.

"Upon receipt of your telegram saying that he was not the man, I felt that I would not be acting up to my convictions if I paused there, and so sent for C. Earl Parr of Iowa City, who is a son of the present administrator of the McGlinchy estate of Campbell. The young man had some acquaintance with Dunham, and upon seeing the prisoner was immediately struck with the resemblance to the murderer, but would not make up his mind at first as to his identity. He stayed here one night and all of one day, seeing the suspect many times, but could not say positively either one way or the other. If a man who knew Dunham slightly should be so puzzled, I believe it well worth while for a man who knows him intimately to see the prisoner. I am positive that he is the man, and hope that you will see your way clear to take steps to prove his identity."

This morning the Sheriff, Chief of Police and a number of persons who knew Dunham well took the photographs and descriptive matter from Iowa and gave all a close examination. As a result it was announced that there are sufficient reasons to warrant a clearing of the identity in the case. It was unanimously agreed by those who knew Dunham well that the description is that of a man remarkably like Dunham, if it is not him.

Parr, who is mentioned in the letter, leaves Iowa for San Jose, and is due here next Monday. The Burlington Sheriff has been wired to hold the suspect until local officers can confer with Parr, when he will be further instructed. While the officers will not say the man is Dunham, they do say they are much interested, and that they are exercised is plainly visible.

FRANCE WANTS NO WAR WITH ENGLAND.

Embassador Cambon Says His Country Desires Peace.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

LONDON, Jan. 17.—The French Embassador to Great Britain, M. Paul Cambon, replying to an address of the International Arbitration Association at the Embassy here today, said no feelings of hostility toward the British existed in France. The press on both sides, he added, had exaggerated the little friction over the Fashoda incident, which was only temporary. He assured the people of Great Britain that neither the French nation nor the government of France desired war, and speaking from experience, M. Cambon could say that no European nation desired war. On the contrary, there was an earnest wish for peace, and France cordially supported the Czar's aims, but the Embassador expressed the fear that their practical realization will be a long time coming.

GOVERNOR LEEDY AGAIN IN TROUBLE.

Calling of the Legislature in Special Session Illegal.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

TOPEKA, Kas., Jan. 17.—Attorney-General A. A. Goddard has prepared a decision holding that the special session of the Legislature called by Governor Leedy was illegal and all laws passed at that session void. The pay of many of the members will be thus tied. Mandamus proceedings will be instituted in the District Court by ex-Lieutenant-Governor Harvey and the legality of the special session tested.

NO CURRENCY REFORM YET.

House Recommits the Bill to Banking Committee.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—Immediately after the reading of the Journal, Mr. McCleary (R.) of Minnesota, on behalf of the Banking and Currency Committee, made a statement to the effect that the vote on the currency bill reported at the last session had been irregularly taken in the committee, and he therefore asked that the bill be recommitted.

"This does not mean that the bill is to be abandoned?" asked Mr. Richardson (D.) of Tennessee.

"No, sir."

"The other side has promised currency reforms," continued Mr. Richardson, and I would like to know if the bill is again to be reported."

"I am neither a prophet nor the son of a prophet," responded Mr. McCleary.

Mr. Mitchell (R.) of New York explained that there had been some irregularity in the vote, and in order to avoid any such show of unfairness to the opponents of the bill this action had been decided upon. There was no objection, and the bill was recommitted.

Mr. Mercer (R.) of Nebraska asked unanimous consent for the consideration of the bill for the aid of the exposition of Greater America to be held at Omaha, Nebraska, but Mr. Richardson objected because the bill had not been considered by a committee of the House.

A bill was passed to amend the act granting a right of way through the Indian Territory to the Gainesville, McAllister and St. Louis Railway Company.

The House then went into Committee of the Whole and resumed consideration of the naval personnel bill. Mr. Bailey moved to strike from section 7 the following proviso, "And provided, further, that nothing contained in this section shall be construed to prevent the retirement of officers with the rank and pay of Commodore;"

The rank of Commodore, he said, was abolished on the active list by the bill. Why should it be continued on the retired list?

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Jan. 17.—Michael Rulinski, known as the Polish dude, who strangled his wife to death and then set fire to the body and house to cover the crime, committed suicide some time last night by strangling himself with a bed cord taken from his bed in the county jail. Previous to his wife's death the baby died under suspicious circumstances, and he was accused of killing it, but the authorities were unable to fasten the crime upon him. Rulinski was well educated, always dressed in faultless attire and was said to have been a black sheep of a Polish royal family.

BUSINESS OF CITY COUNCIL.

Long Debate on Opening of Cemetery Creek.

Much Routine Work Handled by City Fathers.

At a regular meeting of the City Council held last evening the following members were present: Messrs. Brosnahan, Cuvellier, Earl, Girard, Henneberry, Pringle, Rowe, Upton, Watkinson, Woodward and President Heitmann.

Chief of Police Fletcher's report for December, showing cost of food for the City Prison, was placed on file.

The report of the City Wharfinger for the month of December, showing receipts to the amount of $332.64, was placed on file.

The ordinance rescinding a portion of an ordinance declaring certain street in Oakland public highways and abandoning a portion of First street, was read for the second time.

George Roeth spoke to the ordinance, urging that it be amended so as to cover all the property affected by the original ordinance.

Attorney Emil Nusbaumer spoke about the matter, asking that immediate action be taken, as there was under consideration the sale of the property involved, and that time was an essence of that contract. The ground, he said, was to be occupied by a large manufacturing plant, and it meant a great deal to Oakland, for many men and women would find employment there.

Earl said he did not understand the business and would not vote to pass the ordinance at this time, as he wished it re-referred to the committee so that it could be put in proper shape and include all the property.

Girard spoke upon the matter, urging that immediate action be taken, as the sale of this property meant a great deal to many men and women. The money, he said, was on deposit in the Central Bank, and would be paid over immediately upon the adjustment of this matter.

Cuvellier said he was in favor of passing the ordinance at once, and Upton concurred in this, saying that if there was anything Oakland needed it was manufactories, and he hoped there would be no delay.

Henneberry and Watkinson both stated they could see no reason for haste, as they understood the people had until April to close the deal.

President Heitmann then proceeded to show by reference to the map that the property involved in the sale was not included in the description in the ordinance.

Upon Judge Nusbaumer agreeing to pay the extra cost in the event of the ordinance not covering the point, it was passed to print.

Brosnahan introduced an ordinance to extend and open Grand avenue as a public street. He stated that he had deeds in his possession for land through which the street would pass, but would not place them on record until the ordinance had been passed.

Girard said the City Engineer had told them the lake was originally across the street, and if that was the case Edson Adams had no right to the land he had deeded, and it should be investigated.

Woodward stated that this was a part of the work of dredging the lake, and he urged that immediate action be taken.

After some further talk, and on suspension of the rules, the ordinance was passed to print.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED.

Resolutions were adopted as follows:

Accepting the offer of Sarah Weill to a strip of land on Fourteenth street for $200 in addition to amount allowed by the commissioners.

Accepting contractor's bond of John Geary for sewering Castro street.

Granting permission to property owners to erect a bulkhead on the west shore of the northwest arm of Lake Merritt. Referred to Street Committee.

Authorizing Superintendent of Streets to light Alice street bridge.

Authorizing City Attorney to prepare bill accepting Clay street.

Directing Superintendent of Streets to construct a catch basin at the corner of Twenty-seventh and West streets.

Directing Superintendent of Streets to construct crosswalks on Franklin street between First and Seventh street.

A resolution of intention was adopted to grade, curb and macadamize Tenth avenue from East Twenty-eighth street 320 feet south.

An ordinance ordering the opening of Adams street and appointing J. O. Cadman, E. J. Cotton and S. L. Everett as commissioners, was introduced and referred to the Ordinance and Judiciary Committee.

Petitions were disposed of as follows:

For sewer in Eighth street from Oak street 250 feet west. Referred to Street Committee.

Against sidewalking on Chestnut street from Twenty-first street to Twenty-second street. Referred to Street Committee.

To change grade of East Nineteenth street between Sixteenth and Seventeenth avenues. Referred to Street Committee.

For use of sanitary carts and vehicles. Filed.

Against macadamizing Fifth street between Adeline and Kirkham streets. Referred to Street Committee.

To extend show windows of 1157 and 1159 Washington street. Referred to Fire and Water Committee.

Against sewering Twenty-third and West streets. Set for hearing Monday, February 6th at 8:30 P. M.

Against macadamizing Third avenue Referred to Street Committee.

For a sidewalk on Twenty-fourth avenue between Twentieth and Twenty-second avenues. Referred to Street Committee.

Against sidewalking Oakland avenue. Referred to Street Committee.

Against remacadamizing Fifth street from Cypress to Peralta street. Referred to Street Committee.

From Hillhouse & Reardon, to have Council accept Clay street from Seventh street to San Pablo avenue. Referred to Street Committee.

A communication from the Board of Works together with the water bills for the City Hall for the month of January was referred to the Fire and Water Committee.

The application for a fifty-year franchise to cremate garbage was indefinitely postponed.

Woodward introduced an ordinance to take the place of his expectoration ordinance which makes it unlawful to expectorate upon the floor or steps of any public car or conveyance within the city limits, or upon the floor or steps of any public building or sidewalk or crosswalk within the present fire limits. The ordinance was referred to the Ordinance and Judiciary Committee.

A resolution remitting to P. Loclavirie $3.27 paid as penalty on taxes was lost.

The following bids for the construction of the Cemetery creek outlet sewer were read: Wm. Heafy, $6,279.25; Easton & Wilson, $7,426.25; Cotton Brothers, $6,293.25; E. Cavanaugh, $7,773.75; J. H. Beisel, $5,721.50; W. J. Schmidt, $6,263.75; John Geary, $5,794.75; A. C. Mattingly, $5,167.35 (lowest). The bids were referred to the City Attorney.

As a special order for 9 o'clock the hearing of protestants against the third report of the commissioners for the opening of a street in Cemetery creek canyon was heard.

Captain Goodall spoke in regard to the matter, saying that it seemed to be the sense of the property owners that it was necessary to put in a storm sewer and a street.

Judge Nusbaumer stated that he understood there was a movement on foot to secure a right of way for this street and that if the matter could be laid over he felt satisfied it could be settled without any fight in the Council.

Brosnahan wanted to know who was back of the proposition, and Nusbaumer referred to Woodward, who stated that the Lake Merritt Sanitary Improvement Club was undertaking to put the matter through.

John McDonald stated that a list of the property owners had been taken and an effort was being made to get from each a right of way. This he explained would require some little time, as some of the property was owned by corporations, and it would be necessary to hold meetings of the directors to consider the matter. He, therefor, urged that further action be deferred.

Ira Bishop spoke upon the matter at some length, stating that it was the opinion of those of the property holders he had talked with that the city should build the sewer. He held that those who protested against the abatement of this nuisance should come forward and offer some better way of doing it than that suggested.

Brosnahan spoke against putting off action on the matter, as he said it had hung fire for some time, and there was no evidence to show that anything was being done.

Henneberry expressed himself in favor of building a storm sewer, saying there was no occasion for a street at this time.

E. C. Sessions stated that the conditions were different from any other that had occurred in the city. He said the people seemed to lose sight of the fact that it was absolutely necessary to open the street in order to get the sewer. He said he felt that the city should bear a portion of the expense.

Attorney Sam Bell McKee was called upon and stated that Mr. Pierce was willing to have built a storm sewer, but that the building of a street would entail an expense the land would not stand and would practically amount to confiscation of a great deal of property.

Judge Nusbaumer said the city had a right to condemn property for a sewer, and he urged that the work be begun at the right end, that is, build the storm sewer first. He urged that if the city would pay for the storm sewer then it would be acceptable to consider the opening of a street later.

President Heitmann informed the gentlemen that they were getting off the subject, as the hearing was on the protest against the report of the commissioners and not against the opening of the street.

A resolution was then adopted postponing further action on the matter till Tuesday evening, January 24th.

The Council then adjourned.

THE CAUSE REVEALED.

Real Source of Rheumatism Is Finally Found by Scientific Discovery.

For years the medical profession and people generally have been inquiring "what is the cause of rheumatism?" Millions have suffered from its strange attacks; have endured in silence and still wondered what could have caused it. Like all great things in this world, the cause is very simple when clearly understood.

Uric acid in the blood is the one great cause of all this great trouble, all this pain, all this annoyance, which so often wrecks the life.

But how does this uric acid get into the blood? That is the great question.

Uric acid gets into the blood, poisons the blood, and often ruins the life, because it is not expelled from the system.

But how can it be thrown out of the system?

In one way and in one way only—through the kidneys. Is it not simple, is it not reasonable—it is true!

It is because the kidneys are not doing their duty that the uric acid remains in the body, gets into the blood, causes those terrible pains in the joints and muscles and frequently brings on more serious troubles.

There has never been but one way by which the kidneys could be kept in perfect condition and good working order, and that is by the use of that great modern discovery—Warner's Safe Cure. This has been proven conclusively by the millions of people who have used it, by the millions who have been helped by those who are in perfect health today.

You know this, reader, if you will only stop and think. Recall how many times you have read the grateful words of men and women who have been in the depths of bitterness and who have been restored by using Warner's Safe Cure. There are an untold number of people today who would be in an exhausted condition from rheumatism if it were not for a constant use of this great discovery.

TUESDAY.....JANUARY 17, 1899.

The Republican ticket is good enough for the taxpayers of Oakland. The nominees are all upright, capable citizens, and the municipal government will be safe in their hands. With the present party prestige and the right kind of fight, the ticket should be elected from one end to the other.

The House Committee will to-morrow take up the question of the construction of a Pacific cable from San Francisco to Japan, via Hawaii. As the War and Navy Departments and practically all the commercial interests of the country are in favor of the proposition, it looks like an absolute certainty that it will go through.

From all over the Coast reports come of the increased activity in real estate circles since the heavy rains of the past few days. Capital, which became exceptionally timid when there were prospects of another drouth, has now "loosened up" again, and business of every description is booming. It looks as if California is going to have one of the most successful years in her history.

The House appropriation of $50,000 for the naval training school at Goat Island assures the commencement of work there at an early date, a piece of news that is welcome here, for Oakland will undoubtedly benefit very materially by the operation of the institution. Congress has been very liberal to this part of the West this year, an item of $815,750 being contained in the bill, for improvements at Goat Island. The Pacific Coast is at last being accorded the attention it deserves.

The long, wet, dark nights are furnishing just the opportunities burglars and sneak thieves rejoice in, as is shown by the long list of crimes perpetrated here and in San Francisco of late. The police department distinguishes itself well enough in times of peace, and now that the occasion has arisen when its services are actually needed it should exert itself to win the proffered laurels. The best proof of the efficiency of a police force is the kind of work it does in the hour of need.

The interest taken in the museum at Golden Gate Park is shown by the way donations to it come from all over the country. Every old-time Californian seems to have its success at heart, and if the contributions continue to pour in at the rate they have been coming of late, the institution will soon outgrow its present quarters. It has, in fact, been necessary to add a wing to it already as a matter of temporary accommodation, the original storehouse being sadly inadequate to the demands upon it.

English capitalists, ever alert for safe fields for investment, are now turning their attention to California's vast oil treasures. A large block of the stock of the famous Coalinga wells has just passed into their hands, and it is announced that experts are on route here in behalf of other companies. They know that they are not running much risk in any dealings they may have regarding California's mineral treasures, for they have put out their money here before and have had no occasion to complain at the outcome.

NICARAGUA CANAL ASSURED

This is good news that comes to the fruit growers of California, and to all other interests of the State. John D. Rockefeller, the Standard Oil power is authoritatively announced as behind the project for the construction of the Nicaragua Canal. The information will afford the doubting Thomases in that body the back bone that they seem to have needed to enable them to withstand the sophistries of the forces arrayed against a project which has the approbation of the great mass of the American people.

With Rockefeller standing ready to tackle the canal construction, there is no doubt about its being built. His is as great a name to conjure with as any, and it may be as all of the interests lined up against it. As Daniel Webster once said in a public speech, delivered after he had generously dined, "This national debt has got to be paid, even if I have to pay it myself," so might John D. Rockefeller, if driven to it say that the Nicaragua Canal must be constructed even if he had to do it himself.

REPUBLICAN CITY TICKET.

The Republican city convention has placed its candidates for the spring elections in the field. They are of a character that will commend them individually, as well as the ticket as a whole, to the Republican voters of the city.

A number of gentlemen who have obtained the honor of the Republican nomination for the administration of the affairs of the city are men who have already borne the test of public office. All of them are men of approved worth, and well known to their fellow citizens.

The deliberations of this convention were characterized by a degree of harmony that augurs well for the success of the ticket, and is at the same time a guarantee of the character of the elements composing it.

This harmony also vindicates the wisdom of the method of constituting this convention. As the resolution calling the convention explained, "there is no primary election law governing the selection of delegates to a convention, and experience has demonstrated the fact that without such a law the true expression of the opinion of the members of the party is absolutely impossible." An examination of the ticket will satisfy voters that the opinion of the Republican voters of the city of Oakland has been fairly expressed.

The ticket is certainly one that can be commended to the suffrages of the Republican voters of Oakland.

SPAIN'S ANNOYING FRIENDS.

With very great respect for the character and motives of some of the gentlemen who are throwing themselves in front of the advancing car of America's and the world's progress, The Tribune is constrained to submit that many of them are committing the error, always fatal in logic, of proving or of claiming too much. They are getting in the way, not only of their own country, but of Spain, in whose cause they have enlisted. Their positions are inconsistent with each other.

Are Spain's former island possessions of any value? They certainly must be to constitute it an act of rapacity on the part of the United States to acquire them. One of these critics declares that we have compelled Spain to sign a treaty that guarantees us compensation several times over for the costs of the war. Yet this critic and his school, at the same moment, are filling the air with wails over the worthlessness of these acquisitions to this country, and enforce their point by referring to the difficulties Spain has encountered in keeping and in trying to govern them.

But, on the other hand, are these islands of little or no value? If so, as Spain's experience and the arguments of our timid economists would seem to show, is it right, is it humane, is it honest even, for professed friends of a feeble and hard-pressed nation, to stand in its way of making a good bargain out of them, or, if you will, the best of a bad bargain?

Here is Spain, according to the news of today, in the market with its remaining islands, the Ladrones, the Carolines and the Pellew islands, anxious to get any nation to take them off its hands. What are our excellent sentimental friends going to do about it?

Spain made a vast deal of diplomatic bother about letting go its nominal hold on the Philippines. Yet, its grasp on them, as on Cuba, was already gone. It no longer possessed a navy and the financial resources required to bully them into a semblance of subjection. The action of the United States in relieving Spain of further responsibility for these expensive luxuries was a mercy to Spain. Would our theorists have us give them back, and incidentally rob Spain of its shrewdly gained twenty millions? They are making Spain tired.

They are making tired, also, American thinkers of a more positive school than themselves, who have faith enough in the future and in American sagacity not to be afraid to perform the duty that lies next to them. These believe that the United States will know how to find a way of caring for these distracted and run-down islands as Spain could not.

QUAY'S ENEMIES FIGHTING HARD.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire

HARRISBURG, Pa., Jan. 17.—A conference of the anti-Quay Republican legislators was held this morning, at which it was decided to meet daily during the contest for United States Senator. Fifty-one original signers to the anti-Quay pledges were present. Senator Losch of Schuylkill, who is reported ill, was the only absentee.

The steering committee reported a plan of action, and Senator Martin of Philadelphia and Representative Iliss of Delaware gave practical instruction as to the procedure for the election of a Senator.

LAMPING HOLDS DELGER'S NOTE.

Heirs Bring a Suit in Court to Prevent Its Collection.

The executors of the will of the late Frederick Delger have brought suit in the Superior Court to enjoin James Joseph Lamping from negotiating a promissory note for $10,000, purporting to have been signed by the deceased millionaire.

Lamping was confidential secretary for Mr. Delger and transacted a great deal of his business for several years. The note he holds is dated January 3, 1897, and is to run three years without interest.

The executors, E. F. Delger and Mrs. Matilda Brown, children of the late capitalist, allege that they have information that Lamping is trying to negotiate the note, which they declare to be void. They contend that the paper was not signed by the late capitalist, or if it was signed that it was done so under a misapprehension, without any knowledge that a payment of money would be required. It is also alleged that the note passed into Lamping's hands without consideration.

The complaint further alleges that Lamping occupied a position of trust and confidence, and had entire charge of the millionaire's interests and all money matters pertaining to his property.

It is claimed that shortly before Delger's death Lamping was superseded, and after the funeral he was entirely relieved from his customary office. This was at the time that trouble was imminent among the heirs in the settlement of the estate. They finally settled their difficulties and overlooked Lamping, who had served their father for years. This he resented to some extent, but made no effort to press any claims until he brought forward the note which has stirred up the present litigation.

WOMAN KILLED IN FLYING FROM FLAMES.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

CLEVELAND, O., Jan. 17.—While seeking safety from the flames which were destroying their home at 77 Hough avenue, Mrs. Fred W. Tisdel was instantly killed, and her husband sustained severe injuries from which he may die. Mr. Tisdel is chief clerk in the Auditing Department of the Lake Shore Railroad.

The couple were sleeping on the second floor, and when aroused it was too late to get out by way of the stairs. They were forced to make their way to a scaffolding on a new house which was being erected next door. The scaffolding gave way, and both were precipitated to the ground. The fire was caused by a defective furnace flue.

DEFIES JUDGE AND SHERIFF.

Hannah Mahoney Will Not Give Up Her Old Home.

Aged Hannah Mahoney defied the courts or Sheriff, before Judge Hall yesterday afternoon, to put her out of the home in which she had been living for forty years.

"Never," she declared, "will I let them take my home from me. I was a bride in that house, and I want to die there. I have not long to live now, and they should surely let me end my days in peace where I have lived for nearly half a century."

Mrs. Mahoney appeared before Judge Hall in response to an order of the court to show cause why she should not be removed as administratrix of her deceased husband's estate.

Cornelius Mahoney made a will twenty-five years ago directing all his debts to be paid and dividing his property among his heirs. To his wife he bequeathed two lots; to Timothy Mahoney one lot, another to John Mahoney, and another to Margaret Mahoney. Mrs. Mahoney was named executrix of the will.

The executrix mortgaged the lot which was bequeathed to Timothy Mahoney and he refused to accept it until the mortgage had been cleared. This the court ordered the widow to do. Much time has been allowed her, but she has not complied with order of the court.

Finally, Timothy Mahoney brought suit to have her ousted as administratrix of the estate.

After hearing the widow's story yesterday, Judge Hall said it was a hard thing to do to order her out of home, but he held that the law was clear and there was only one thing to do, and that was to revoke Mrs. Mahoney's letters of administration.

A new administrator will be appointed and her lots will be sold to raise the mortgage on Timothy's lot.

The property is situated in a block on Third and Grove streets. The whole estate left was valued at about $5,000.

DEATH IN HARMONICAS.

Instruments Soaked in Acid and Left for Little Children.

A report comes from West Oakland which shows either a fervid imagination or the work of a would-be assassin.

Mrs. Louis Salvesen of 1725 Fourteenth street states that she firmly believes some person of evil mind deliberately soaked three harmonicas in carbolic acid and then placed them on the front steps of her house, so that her children would find them. Fortunately, she says, these articles of destruction were discovered by her 12-year-old daughter, Mary, who immediately reported to her mother, expressing the belief that she detected the odor of carbolic acid about them.

After discussing the possible effect, had the youngest children found these articles, it was suggested by the father that the instruments be boiled. This was done, after which the youngsters devoted much time in making life miserable for the neighbors with the aid of what may have been intended for their destruction.

JEALOUS WOMAN AND A REVOLVER.

She Shoots the Wife of a Man Who Had Been Her Sweetheart.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

CLEVELAND, O., Jan. 17.—A sensational shooting affair took place last night at the Wellington, a fashionable apartment house. A well-dressed and handsome woman, said to be Miss Edna Raymond, entered the rooms occupied by Mr. and Mrs. John A. Hanna, during the absence of the husband, and opened fire on Mrs. Hanna with a revolver. Four shots were fired in rapid succession, only one of which took effect. It struck Mrs. Hanna in the thigh, and caused a painful wound. Miss Raymond, having apparently emptied her revolver, escaped, and has not yet been located by the police.

Mr. and Mrs. Hanna were married at Christmas. Up to a short time previous Hanna had kept company, it is said, with Miss Raymond. Jealousy undoubtedly led to the shooting.

No Hope for the Paul Jones.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—Treasury officials today expressed the opinion that the naptha launch Paul Jones, now being searched for in the Mississippi waters, is at the bottom of the Gulf or river with all on board, though a diligent search is being made by the Government authorities for traces of the party. There is a strong disposition among the officials here to believe that the vessel may have made a short cut over to Pensacola on a course far out in the Gulf, a trip regarded as foolhardy for so light a craft in such weather.

Coal Miners on Strike.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

MACON, Mo., Jan. 17.—About 220 miners in the employ of the Little Pittsburg Coal Company at Lingo, Macon county, are out on a strike for higher wages. The operators refuse to grant the increase, and say if the strikers do not return to work in a few days forces will be put in their places.

GOOD FORTUNE OF OAKLANDER.

Conrad Thrane Falls Heir to a Rich Estate.

Conrad Thrane, a young man in the employ of the Theo. Gier Company, has through the death of his father, fallen heir to a fortune valued at over $100,000. The young man has been living on a modest salary for some years, never dreaming that he would one day be a rich man.

The story of Thrane's life is not without its romance, as the following will show.

Captain Ludwig Thrane, Conrad's father, was a seafaring man. In 1869 he brought his young bride to San Francisco. In 1870 Conrad was born and the family soon after removed to Germany, the former home of the parents. Their life was unhappy, resulting finally in a separation. Mrs. Thrane returned to San Francisco and her husband resumed his former occupation upon the seas. Conrad had never heard from nor seen his father since. He grew to manhood and became known to his friends and associates as a thrifty young man.

A few years ago, while ashore in Germany, Captain Thrane, who had become quite wealthy, made a will leaving all his property to cousins and nothing to his son. Later the captain settled in San Francisco. He lived in ignorance of his son's whereabouts and the son likewise did not know his father was so near to him. Last April Captain Thrane's mother died in Germany, leaving her son 30,000 marks. The money had not been received here when Captain Thrane died last November.

Not until after the funeral of his father did Conrad know the relationship he bore to the old captain. He immediately took steps to establish his claim to the property, and though the will leaves it all to the cousins, the son will have little trouble in proving his claim and securing that which is rightfully his. The father's private estate is said to be worth as much as that left by Conrad's grandmother, which, if true, will make this young man very wealthy.

JOHN M'COMB IS INSANE.

Sent to the Asylum for the Third Time.

John McComb, son of the late General McComb, has again become a raving maniac. Last night he attempted to wreck his home by breaking all the furniture and driving the members of the family out of the house.

George McComb, a brother of the maniac, was at the house, but was powerless to deal with the frenzied man. He telephoned for Special Officer Cory to come to his assistance. When the officer arrived John was out in the front yard, scantily clothed and picking flowers. He submitted to arrest and was brought to the Receiving Hospital.

McComb was examined today by Drs. B. A. Rabe and Theo. Olmsted and recommended for commitment.

McComb's aberation of mind seems to have been brought on by the study of theosophy and Buddism. He raves about conversing with spirits and hearing voices. While the Lunacy Commission were examining him he delivered a lengthy discourse upon theosophy and occult theories. He claims that he has not yet reached the most advanced stage in his study. McComb is 38 years of age and has been confined to the asylum at Agnews twice. Once in 1892 and again in 1895. On both occasions he was released after a short confinement as being cured. His family lives on Derby street and Telegraph avenue, Temescal.

HIS CRIME BEARS FRUIT.

Innocent Ones Suffer Because of a Foul Murder.

The crime of Frank H. Creeseman, who murdered Henry J. Brooke, has borne its fruit.

At a meeting of the Board of Supervisors yesterday Mrs. Josie Brooke, widow of the murdered man, made application for relief as an indigent. Her application was made in a written statement in which she said she had three children. A son is in Oregon, while her two daughters are with her at the Hotel Shasta on Broadway.

She has endeavored since the murder of her husband to support herself and daughters by doing plain sewing, but has been unable to get enough work to buy the necessities of life. She also states that for several months past she has received aid from Supervisor Church, but having moved to another district she is now compelled to seek aid from the Board. Her application was referred to Supervisor Roeth.

Brooke was an industrious painter, and supported his family in a comfortable manner. His death left them without means.

He will shortly be established in more commodious quarters, and it goes without saying that his venture in this city will prove most lucrative, financially speaking, and a most wise one in all other respects.

A magnificent example of what care of health will do for a man is presented in the life of Mr. Gladstone, the greatest statesman of the century. This "Grand Old Man" at eighty-six years of age, retained his intellectual vigor unabated, and had not lost the sinewy grip with which he fastened upon any subject that interested him.

Nearly every man has it in his power to live to a green old age like the great statesman of England. It is simply a matter of a little daily thought and regard for health. If, when a man feels that he is a little out of sorts, he will resort to the right remedy, he will never have to submit to the more serious ills of life. Most men, when they have a headache, feel drowsy during the day and are restless during the night, and find their appetite falling off, pay little or no heed to these warnings. The inevitable result is some dangerous and possibly fatal malady. The doctor may call it consumption, malaria or biliousness, or perhaps some blood or skin disease. It makes but little difference. These troubles all have their inception in the same cause—improper and insufficient nourishment. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery corrects that cause. It makes the appetite keen and hearty, the digestion perfect, the liver active and the blood pure and rich. It is the great blood-maker and flesh-builder. It facilitates the assimilation of the life-giving elements of the food, filling the blood with the nutriment that makes new and healthy flesh and nerve tissue. Medicine dealers sell it.

"Last summer," writes Miss Laura Piersel, of East Bethlehem, Washington Co., Pa., "I was going into consumption. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery completely cured me."

A man or woman who neglects constipation suffers from slow poisoning. Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic.

PRINGLE MAKES A STATEMENT.

Says His Election Expenses Were Paid by Wright.

William B. Pringle, Councilman from the Seventh Ward, has made the following statement concerning his relations with Speaker Howard Wright:

"I again say that I have never been offered money by any one as a consideration for withdrawing from the contest for Assemblyman from the Fifty-first District. I did withdraw in order to assist my friend, Frank C. Jordan, who was a candidate for County Clerk, and to whom I was under obligations, knowing that the office to which he aspired was very much more important to him than mine to me.

"Through the action of mutual friends I received from Howard Wright $250, a portion of the expenses I had already incurred in the campaign. My canvass of the district, together with my printing, cards, expenses for buggies previously ordered, and house meetings brought the amount, in all, to over $500. In expending this sum I realized that the nomination practically meant election, and as a consequence I devoted my energies to winning out at the primary.

"I never for one moment would have listened to any monetary offer to withdraw from any political contest, and I hope my public record has been such as to satisfy the community in this regard.

"The facts are that my withdrawal—as every one knows who was connected with the workings of the campaign—was purely in the interests of harmony and to aid in electing Frank Jordan County Clerk. He had been very kind to me, assisting me greatly in the Council fight, it having been my first experience in politics, and I had repeatedly said that if my candidacy in any way would be a stumbling-block to him I would withdraw.

"It soon became apparent that Wright's personal friends felt piqued at my candidacy, and might make it an issue in the Seventh Ward by supporting the opposition ticket, as I was tied up with the Jordan-Melvin ticket. I knew the primary would be a very close one, and so, although I was urged by many to stay in the race, I decided to step out, in order to devote my full strength to the Jordan interests.

"Some of our mutual friends who were helping in the campaign agreed with me that this was the proper course to pursue, as it would bring us support from Berkeley and prevent further opposition in the Seventh Ward. These are the facts."

SIGNAL SYSTEM AT A CROSSING.

Better Protection to Be Given at Seventh and Webster Streets.

At the meeting of the City Council last evening the following communication was received from the Southern Pacific Company:

"To insure greater safety to the traveling public, we desire to install a complete interclosing signal system covering the track crossing at Seventh and Webster streets. To properly operate such a system it is essential that the men in charge have a clear view of tracks on both Webster and Seventh streets in the immediate vicinity of the crossing.

"We have therefore arranged with the owner of the property on the northwest corner of the streets named for permission to build a bay window above the awning which now protects the sidewalk, and such bay window is to conform in general to the character of the building to which it shall be attached, projection beyond the westerly building line of Seventh street not to exceed seven feet. Access to the tower from the sidewalk to be by an iron ladder which will project upon the sidewalk from the building line not more than fifteen inches, a support for the tower to be given by posts which will replace the existing awning posts.

"In view of the benefit to the public and the fact that the location is upon the extreme edge of the fire limits, we respectfully request formal permission to carry out the work as outlined."

The communication was referred to the Fire and Water Committee.

BUILDERS EXCHANGE ELECTS OFFICERS

The members of the Builders Exchange met Saturday evening and elected the following officers: President, Edward T. Leiter; vice president, A. Kendal; treasurer, E. C. Bridgman; Secretary, J. G. White; and directors, J. A. Smille, W. W. Anderson, Henry Drath, George Dixon, M. Carroll, J. Frandsen and Percy Walker.

The outlook for building prospects during the coming year was discussed. The prevailing opinion was that there would be a general increase of business during 1899.

The financial secretary of the Exchange presented his annual report in which he stated that the organization is in a good financial condition.

LAKE MERRITT DREDGING BEGUN.

Dredgings are Pumped on the Bacon Property.

At last, the dredging of Lake Merritt has been begun. It was started yesterday afternoon and will be steadily continued until the great work shall have been accomplished.

Sunday evening, the dredger was given a trial and was found to work in a very satisfactory manner. The work yesterday afternoon was done on the east side of the lake where a shallow was deepened in order to permit the mooring of a barge to a temporary wharf. The barge will be used to receive coal which is to be used in firing the grates of the dredger. Two barges will be employed. One will always remain at the wharf and the other will act as a tender and be attached to the dredger.

The mud pumped from the lake went to fill up the land which the late H. D. Bacon has deeded to the city. The dredger will consume about six tons of coal a day. It has a capacity of between 5,000 and 6,000 yards, each twenty-four hours.

SHE LOVES THE CHILDREN.

Margaret Wilburn, who presides at the organ of St. Joseph's Church, Alameda, has gathered about her a number of little children ranging in age from 8 to 13 years, and has organized a choral society. Her idea is to instill in their young hearts a love of music, which will draw them unconsciously toward the good and beautiful.

Mrs. Wilburn has an intense love for children. She holds that every human soul is but a single note in the vast keyboard of existence, and that every child should be so taught that it could respond harmoniously when struck by the Master Hand.

The children's choral society is attracting a good deal of attention among musical people in Alameda.

ALAMEDA'S CITY CAMPAIGN OPENS.

Municipal Ownership League Makes Some Nominations.

ALAMEDA, Jan. 17.—The Municipal Ownership League met last night in Linderman hall and nominated a part of the ticket for the city election that it will present to the February convention. The League will meet next Monday night to complete its nominations. The following gentlemen were named last evening. For City Trustees, Jos. Forderer, Albert Arentz, F. W. Hopps and George R. Miller; for School Directors, Dr. E. M. Keyes, George Bordwell, Frank Otis, S. E. Baker, George Babcock and J. R. Sloan; for City Clerk, B. F. Lamborn and C. J. Lancaster; for City Treasurer, Elmer E. Johnson and R. G. Wheeler; for City Assessor, E. Minor Smith and Arthur G. Burns.

Dr. Carpenter presented a resolution drawn by Health Officer McLean, urging the League to support U. S. Grant for United States Senator. The resolution was not read, as a point of order was raised that the League was organized for the consideration of municipal affairs only.

Yesterday morning a house on Alameda avenue, between Oak and Park streets, owned by Peter Christensen, and used as a clothing renovatory, was damaged by fire, caused by the overturning of a stove in the basement. On account of the dense smoke the firemen had much difficulty in locating the blaze, and had it not been for the fact that the benzine and chemicals used for cleaning clothes were stored in an outside building, a serious conflagration could not have been averted.

This morning one of the bullet which Policeman Koyes has been carrying for six weeks, was removed from his neck, just below the jaw. The location of the other bullet is unknown, but its presence causes the officer no inconvenience. He was shot in Jefferson Square, Oakland, by an unknown man whom he had arrested.

The City Trustees met last evening and after transacting some routine business, adjourned out of respect to the late F. J. Fletter, who was a member of the board. It was at first decided not to appoint a new member to fill the vacancy caused by Mr. Fletter's death, but as the city charter makes it mandatory upon the board to fill all vacancies, his successor will be appointed at the next meeting, two weeks from last night.

New rules and regulations governing the fire department were adopted.

It was decided to purchase from the administrator of the estate of Victorine Josephs, deceased, the paraphenalia of the city pound.

A team of horses for use of the Sherman-street fire house was purchased from Lubbin Bros. for $200.

BERKELEY NEWS.

The spring semester of the college year at Berkeley was formally opened yesterday with the registration of students for the ensuing term. For several days the students have been coming into town on every train from the country, and the usual scramble for boarding places has been spirited. All of the fraternity houses have reopened, and Berkeley is again taking on the appearance of a college town. The registration yesterday shows a marked increase in the college roll, there being many graduates from interior high schools that are entering on recommendation.

Mrs. Nellie C. Patterson died at her home, 2022 West Berkeley, at noon yesterday. A rumor of suicide was circulated, but its only foundation was the fact that last Friday evening the nurse attending Mrs. Patterson gave her by mistake a spoonful of carbolic acid, but she immediately detected the taste of the poison and ejected all of the liquid from her mouth. Dr. Gladding, Mrs. Patterson's physician, gave the cause of her death as pneumonia, and Coroner Mehrman ordered an investigation that corroborated the doctor's statement. The deceased, who was 46 years of age, was the widow of Captain Patterson, and leaves five children, Mrs. W. E. Squires and Emma, Ethel, Charles and Thomas Patterson.

WANTS TO REMOVE FATHER AS GUARDIAN.

Frank Schilling appeared in Judge Hall's department of the Superior Court to petition for the removal of William Wright as guardian of his adopted children, Beatrice and Lena Wright. He charges that Wright is habitually drunk and has failed to provide for the children properly, and also that he has not paid their board bills.

The father will contest the case and had witnesses in court to vouch for his character. He claims that the petition for his removal is merely for the purpose of enabling certain creditors to collect an exorbitant board bill for the keeping of his daughters. The creditors wish to collect $50, while he claims but $15 is due.

The case was continued two weeks for a hearing.

BURGLARS DID NOT TAKE THE MONEY

Detectives Holland and Quigley have investigated the story of the alleged burglary of the G. Lang residence, 573 Third street. They say the place is occupied by only a father and son who, jointly run a meat market. Saturday night both counted the cash receipts of the day and put them and other cash under a sink for safe keeping. Sunday morning the money was missing. No door or window showed marks of having been broken, and the inference was that the money was taken by some person who had a key to the place, and who knew where the money had been concealed.

Two Estates in One.

The administration of Mary S. Dyer on the estate of her deceased sister, Jennie D. Herman, has been approved and a distribution ordered.

Mrs. Herman was a widow without children. The heir-at-law to her estate was her mother, Deborah H. Dyer, who died November 16, 1898. Her heirs and executors are Ralph B. Dyer and Mary S. Dyer. The estate of Mrs. Herman will be merged into that of Mrs. Dyer and be divided among her heirs. Mrs. Herman left about $7,800 in stocks and notes.

WORK OF THE EDUCATORS.

High School Teachers Against Special Courses.

The Board of Education held a regular meeting last night.

The reading of communications was the first business taken up.

The teachers of the Oakland High School submitted the following in answer to a request for their views on special courses:

"First—We believe special courses should in a few exceptional instances be granted, but only on recommendation of the principal and High School Committee as at present.

"Second—These courses should include those pupils usually above the High School, who wish to make special preparation for special work or for special courses like those of the Affiliated Colleges in San Francisco, and should include very few others.

"Third—Whenever these courses are granted the pupil should be required to maintain a satisfactory standing in the special course allowed, and if he does not do so the privilege should be revoked."

There was also a protest against the general and indiscriminate granting of special courses.

The objections to this were: That the courses of studies should not be changed for trivial reasons; that there is already a large number of courses to choose from; that in three-fourths of the cases heretofore granted the applicants did not hold a good record in the studies which were to be dropped; that the High School would be injured by having its standard of studies lowered; that pupils may be injured by unwise changing to special courses, and their work delayed in entering upon a University course; that there is already a special provision for lessening the studies of pupils who are ill; and finally, that it is unfair to the taxpayer to have his children attend a school where the standard has been lowered by granting special courses.

The foregoing was read and referred to the High School Committee.

About twenty applications to be allowed to take special courses and to drop certain studies were referred to the Committee on Rules and Regulations. The pupils who have made the applications will be allowed to continue their studies until their applications are acted upon.

The petitions of twelve parents or guardians to have their children or wards admitted to the public schools without tuition were referred to the Committee on Rules and Regulations.

Superintendent McClymonds suggested that the Finance Committee meet with the Finance Committee of the City Council to consult about the school funds. He said that it was very doubtful if the funds would be sufficient to conduct the grammar schools. He also called the attention of the Board to the district between Adeline street and the lake. He said something must be done soon to relieve the crowded condition of all the schools in this district.

J. S. Wixson and J. N. Bonham of the Clawson School District appeared before the Board to ask that the school be raised from a primary to a grammar school. They stated that the school was overcrowded and that there was no room for the students at the Durant School. They asked for an investigation of the matter, to see if some relief could not be had.

The matter was referred to the Committee on Schoolhouses and Sites.

Superintendent McClymonds brought up the matter of paying Miss Emma Hilton for services as Latin instructor in the High School. The matter was referred to the Committee on Rules and Regulations.

The matter of granting pupils leave to take special courses was discussed.

Director Knox thought that the parents of such pupils should come before the Board personally, so that intelligent action might be taken.

Director Clement concurred in these views.

Director Powell made a motion that the committee to which the petitions for special courses were referred be given power to act, and that it extend a general invitation to the parents to be present at the meeting on Wednesday evening to present their applications.

The motion was carried.

The Board then adjourned.

INSOLVENT DEBTOR CHARGED WITH FRAUD.

Judge Ellsworth has issued a citation ordering Henry Warfield and D. M. Bollmanne to appear in court on January 30th to be examined in regard to charges of fraud made by Charles E. Trower.

The petition of Trower states as assignee of the estate of D. M. Bollman, an insolvent debtor he has looked into the affairs of the estate and has reason to believe that Henry Warfield of San Francisco has concealed, embezzled and disposed of certain moneys and personal property belonging to the insolvent estate. He claims that Warfield has collected money owing to the estate and has refused to surrender the same to petitioner.

The petition also states that Bollman is suspected of having concealed, embezzled and disposed of certain money belonging to his estate.

HE DOES NOT WANT TO LOOSE HIS WIFE.

A motion to strike out an amended complaint, in the suit of Eugene Bernal Feliz for divorce from Jose Feliz, was sustained by Judge Ellsworth yesterday. The attorney for the defendant claimed that the amended complaint had been filed without permission from the court. This being the case, the complaint was ordered stricken out.

The suit has been in the court for some time. The wife is seeking to secure a divorce from her husband on the ground of desertion and extreme cruelty. She alleges in her complaint that her husband left her in April of 1894 without her consent. On another occasion she claims he sprang upon her, knocked her down and choked her.

The husband is fighting the case and contends that, although, he did leave her as she alleges, they afterward patched up their difficulties and agreed to live together as man and wife.

The Republican Municipal Convention met in Germania Hall last evening and nominated a complete ticket to be voted for at the municipal election to be held on March 13th.

It was a good natured convention and was composed of representative Republicans of the city who were anxious to place a good ticket in the field.

The City Central Committee had deemed it proper to appoint the delegates to the convention and it was noticed that there were very few vacancies in the list of 144 delegates.

There were but few contests on the floor of the convention and those that took place were of a good-natured character, leaving no bitterness in their trail.

The first incident of the convention was the contest for chairman. Thomas M. Robinson won a victory over George Samuels and made an acceptable presiding officer.

There were no contests over the five main offices, the gentlemen selected being nominated by acclamation. Taken as a whole the convention was a success and the ticket that was nominated is one that will commend itself to the Republicans of Oakland.

THE CONVENTION CALLED TO ORDER AND CHAIRMAN NAMED

The convention was called to order by George R. Williams.

The call for the convention was then read by A. W. Bishop.

A call for nominations for temporary chairman was then made.

C. W. Condon of the Second Ward nominated Thomas M. Robinson.

George Samuels was also nominated.

The nominations were closed.

W. N. Friend seconded the nomination of Robinson.

D. Doody seconded the nomination of Samuels.

George Richardson moved that the chairman of each delegation announce the vote for temporary chairman.

The motion prevailed.

The vote by wards was as follows:

TEMPORARY CHAIRMAN

WARDS.	Robertson.	Samuels.
First	20	..
Second	24	..
Third	..	20
Fourth	5	15
Fifth	20	..
Sixth	..	19
Seventh	21	..
Totals	90	54

The chair announced the vote.

George Samuels moved that the nomination of Mr. Robinson be made unanimous.

The motion was carried.

Mr. Robinson appeared on the platform and was greeted with cheers.

"Gentlemen of the convention," said Mr. Robinson, "I thank you for the honor you have conferred upon me by electing me to preside over such an honorable body as this Republican Convention and every Republican Convention is such a body. I shall not speak to you of the achievements of the Republican party. Its history is an open book. It is known to all of you. I hope the nominees will be the best Republicans you can put before the people, and I am sure that you will see them leading the party on to victory." (Cheers.)

The chair then called for nominations for temporary secretary.

W. Frank Pierce nominated A. W. Bishop.

Charles Tabor was also nominated.

Frank Bilger was also named.

W. W. Knickerbocker moved that the three gentlemen named act as secretaries.

The motion prevailed.

D. Doody moved that the first named act as secretary, and the other as assistants.

The motion prevailed.

Nominations were then called for for the position of sergeant-at-arms.

Dr. Mehrmann nominated J. R. Welsh.

Morris Isaacs named E. Voorhees.

W. H. Dickerson put forth the name of Frank S. Farrington.

Clarence Crowell named Robert Love.

Mr. Johnson announced H. W. Stilley.

Mr. Bellingall moved that the sergeants-at-arms serve without compensation.

This motion created a good deal of laughter.

The motion prevailed.

Manning of the First Ward moved that a Committee on Permanent Organization and Order of Business, to consist of one member from each ward be appointed.

The motion prevailed.

Dr. Mehrmann moved that one delegate from each ward be selected to compose a committee on Resolutions and Platform.

The motion prevailed.

The Committee on Permanent Organization and Order of Business was then announced as follows:

First Ward--A. E. Johnson.
Second Ward--Lou Manning.
Third Ward--George Samuels.
Fourth Ward--C. A. Cole.
Fifth Ward--C. R. Lukens.
Sixth Ward--H. Osgood.
Seventh Ward--Hugh Hogan.

The Committee on Platform and Resolutions was announced as follows:

First Ward--E. M. Long.
Second Ward--G. B. Daniels.
Third Ward--Welles Whitmore.
Fourth Ward--D. W. Standeford.
Fifth Ward--Mack Weber.
Sixth Ward--William Powers.
Seventh Ward--George Mason.

On motion of George Samuels a recess of ten minutes was ordered to enable the committees to deliberate.

After the close of the recess, George Samuels, from the Committee on Permanent Organization and Order of Business, reported: "That the temporary organization be made permanent, save that there be appointed only three sergeants-at-arms; that the secretary be allowed $10 for his services, and the assistant secretaries $5 each; that the three sergeants-at-arms be allowed $5 each; that each delegate be assessed 50 cents; that each candidate, with the exception of those aspiring to the position of School Director and Library Trustee be assessed $5 and that the order of nominations be as follows: Mayor, Auditor, Treasurer, City Attorney, City Engineer, four Councilmen-at-large, four School Directors-at-large, five Library Trustees, seven ward Councilmen, seven School Directors, and seven Republican City Committeemen. It is also recommended that Roberts' Rules of Order be employed.

On motion of Judge Fox the report was adopted.

The chair then appointed as sergeants-at-arms, H. W. Stilley, E. Voorhees, John Gardner.

It was discovered that Stilley was not present.

W. N. Friend suggested that a sergeant-at-arms be selected from the list of names submitted.

Dr. Mehrmann suggested that the owner of the first name on the list be appointed, viz J. R. Welch.

The chair appointed F. S. Farrington in place of Stilley as third sergeant-at-arms.

Then G. B. Daniels appeared on the platform and announced that Mack Weber, the chairman of the Committee on Resolutions had asked him to make the report of the Committee.

Mr. Daniels read the resolutions, which appear in another part of this report.

Dr. Mehrmann moved the adoption of the resolutions.

W. W. Knickerbocker offered an amendment to the resolutions as follows:

"Resolved, That we as Republicans and delegates to the Republican Convention of the City of Oakland, do enter our protest against the election of D. M. Burns as Senator to represent California and that we earnestly request our members of the Legislature to vote against D. M. Burns."

G. R. Lukens moved that the resolution be referred to the Committee on Resolutions. The motion was seconded but was lost.

A motion was then made that the resolution be adopted as read.

Dr. Ellis wanted to know if the resolution was to be considered a part of the resolutions reported by the committee, and whether it could not be reconsidered as a separate part of the proceedings of the convention.

The chair simply stated that the resolution was not yet among the other resolutions in the report.

A vote was taken on the adoption of the resolution as read. Before the negative was called for, George Richardson of the Sixth Ward stated that he thought they ought to have sufficient confidence in their legislators to allow them to act according to their discretion.

The negative was then called for and no voices were heard.

The resolution was declared adopted.

The resolutions of the Committee were then adopted as amended, a few votes being given in the negative.

The chair then instructed the chairman of each delegation to collect 50 cents from each delegate.

MUNICIPAL CONVENTION COMPLETES ITS BUSINESS

Snow the Unanimous Choice For Mayor---Dow, Gilpin, Miller and Breed are Nominated---Platform Short and to the Point.

SNOW CHOSEN UNANIMOUSLY FOR MAYOR.

After the collection had been taken the chair announced that nominations for Mayor were in order.

William Moller moved that nominating speeches be limited to five minutes each and that only two motions seconding nominations be allowed.

The motion prevailed.

Judge Fox moved that the convention, in nominating, follow the order suggested by the committee up to and including the fifth officer on the list, (City Engineer,) for all of which nominees the people all over the city would have to vote, and that then an adjournment of one week be taken.

This brought out a number of cries of, "No!" "No!"

On motion of George Samuels, the proposition was laid over on the table.

There was a lull in the proceedings and, finally, the chair said that if there were no nominations for Mayor, the office would be passed.

W. N. Friend said he rose to place in nomination for the position of Mayor, the Hon. W. R. Snow. He would limit his speech to two sentences. The Fifth Ward would endorse him (the speaker) and would support Mr. Snow.

G. E. Randolph said that he desired, on behalf of the friends of F. V. Wood, to secure the nomination of Mr. Snow.

George Samuels moved that the secretary of the convention cast the full ballot of the convention, 144 votes, for Mr. Snow for Mayor.

The motion prevailed and the vote was cast as ordered.

Mr. Snow was declared the candidate of the convention for Mayor.

Mr. Snow was not present.

"I will call upon W. Nat Friend," said the chair, "to pay $5 for Mr. Snow."

There was a laugh. Mr. Friend blushed. His hands went down into his pockets. There was no $5 there. Finally he negotiated a loan from a near delegate, advanced to the platform and deposited the shiner, saying, as he did so: "The Fifth Ward presents $5 for Mr. Snow." (Laughter.)

ARTHUR BREED ENDORSED FOR CITY AUDITOR.

Nominations for Auditor were then ordered.

S. W. Condon of the Second Ward said he wished to present for Auditor the name of a man who stood at the head of an organization of 600 young Republicans. He took it that it was no disgrace that the young man had served the Republican party in the city of Oakland and in the county of Alameda. He took pleasure in naming a man who would excite the loyalty of every member of that organization and of every man in Oakland who was a Republican or who was attached to Republican principles. He wished to present the name of Arthur H. Breed. (Cheers.) He wished to say that Mr. Breed had been expected to receive the nomination for Auditor at the hands of the Municipal League, and he wanted his hearers not to think for a moment that there were not a great many delegates in that convention who would give Mr. Breed their support. Those delegates would be with them at the polls and make him feel that he had many friends among the Republicans of Oakland.

G. R. Lukens, in behal of the Fifth Ward, seconded the nomination of Breed, as did George Richardson and M. D. Merritt. The nominations were declared closed.

G. R. Lukens moved that the secretary cast the ballot of the convention for Breed. The motion prevailed, the ballot was cast and Breed was declared the nominee.

Mr. Breed appeared and was greeted with applause "I want to thank you," he said, "one and all for this hearty reception and nomination, and I assure you I will do all in my power to be elected, and I will do my level best to serve you. I thank you again for the honor you have conferred on me. At some other time in the campaign I will be pleased to address you."

GILPIN AGAIN NAMED FOR THE TREASURERSHIP.

Nominations for Treasurer were then in order.

Dr. Mehrmann said he desired to place in nomination a gentleman who had served the community for many years in the position in question, a man who had served them well and faithfully. The man was the best Treasurer they had ever had. There was no better in any city in California, and he was exceptionally good because he had come from the Second Ward. He named Z. T. Gilpin.

Gilpin's nomination was seconded by Crowell of the Fifth, Spaulding and Samuels.

The nominations were closed on motion of Judge Fox.

Fred Johnson moved that the secretary be authorized to cast the ballot of the convention for Mr. Gilpin. The motion was carried, the ballot was cast and Gilpin was declared the nominee.

Mr. Gilpin appeared and said that, as he was known to all of them, to almost every member of the delegations, it would be unnecessary for him to say anything to them except to thank them for the hearty support they had given him. If he should be elected, and he was certain he would be, he would endeavor to give them an honest and courteous administration of the office of Treasurer. (Cheers.)

DOW NAMED FOR CITY ATTORNEY A SECOND TIME.

The City Attorney was the next officer to be looked after.

A. J. Reid said that for the position of City Attorney they needed a man who was tried and true and it was fortunate for Oakland that there were in this city several such men left. They had a man who had sat in the Council and who had served there faultlessly and well. In behalf of the Seventh Ward he would name W. A. Dow for the position.

Dr. Mehrmann of the Second, Frost of the First and Bufelter of the Third Ward seconded the nomination.

R. H. Callahan of the Fourth Ward moved that the nominations be closed. The motion was carried and, on motion, the secretary cast the ballot of the convention for Mr. Dow.

Mr. Dow was cheered when he appeared on the platform. "I desire to thank you," he said, "from the bottom of my heart for the honor you have conferred on me. But the best way to show my appreciation is, if elected, to give you a good and trustworthy service. I have read your platform. It is a good one and I will endeavor to carry out its principles."

MILLER FINDS FAVOR AS THE CITY ENGINEER.

G. B. Daniels placed M. K. Miller in nomination for City Engineer. He said he was naming a gentleman who was well known to them all, but they might not all know his record as an engineer. Miller had been in the employ of the Santa Fe Railroad Company and then had charge of the work on Coronado beach. He then went north and was engineer of the Coos Bay road. He had designed and put down the sewer system of Fresno and had served here as Superintendent of Streets. Mr. Daniels then mentioned Mr. Miller's name as the suppliant for their votes.

George Samuels said that the Third Ward was most loyal to its favorites sons but that it had to recognize the fitness of Mr. Miller for the place, and he cheerfully seconded his nomination. Samuels was followed by seconds by Doody, Johns, Stetson, Reid and Price.

The vote of the convention was cast for Mr. Miller by the secretary.

Mr. Miller was greeted with cheers when he appeared. He had been before the people of the city, he said, in the capacity of a public servant and they could judge as to what they could expect of him if elected by what he had done as Street Superintendent. He thanked them sincerely for the honor they had conferred on him.

COUNCILMEN AT LARGE ARE NOMINATED.

Nominations for Councilman-at-large were called for.

John Stetson nominated Anson Barstow of the Fifth Ward.

Price of the Second Ward seconded the nomination.

A. S. Macdonald named B. C. Cuvellier.

Judge Fox nominated George R. Stetson.

W. W. Knickerbocker named C. A. Chichester of Golden Gate. He said that the annexed district wanted a man to represent it because it wanted to get sewers and other accommodations.

Payne of the First, Crowell of the Fifth and Farnham of the Seventh seconded Chichester; Lukens seconded Cuvellier, and Mehrmann, Friend and Richardson seconded Stetson.

Reed nominated B. H. Welch.

Johnstone of the First seconded Barstow.

Dr. Kane of the Seventh nominated B. Woolner.

J. C. Rued was nominated.

L. J. Hardy, Jr., was named.

The candidates were called to the platform.

Cuvellier said that he was brief in stature and would be brief in his remarks. He had served them two years in the Council, and if elected would serve them as well in the future as he had in the past.

Stetson said he was young at the business, but that he would do his best to be elected, and if elected he would serve the people to the best of his ability.

Chichester said that they would be governed in their action more by what a man did rather than by what he said he would do. He believed that the business of the city should be conducted on the same principles as private business. If nominated and elected, he would promise that every act of his would be along that line.

B. H. Welch thanked them for the nomination, and said that he would do his best to serve the people.

Ben Woolner was received with cheers, which continued for a minute.

He thanked them from the bottom of his heart for the very kind ovation. He believed that in the course of human events the young men of the city could presume to sit in the Council with older citizens and work for the good of the city. It was with that idea that he had sought a nomination at their hands to have a seat in the Council. If that should be granted to him and he should be elected, he would work for the upbuilding of this beautiful city. If he should be elected they would regret no vote they would cast for him.

Hardy said what they wanted was a guaranty that the Councilmen would act with fidelity. He presented them with a record which they knew. Many of them had been schoolmates of his in the early days. They could testify to his public conduct and to his conduct as a public Library Trustee. As a tax-payer they knew his record. As a man of family they knew his record. He had three children and of them he was proud. He was there with the interest at heart which he had in the reading room and Public Library. He thought that as Councilman he could exercise his influence in behalf of those institutions. He had not been approached by any of the water companies to find out how he would vote on the water rates. The water companies generally liked to know how the Councilmen would vote on the rates. He would be as honest in the Council as he had been before.

W. N. Friend spoke for Barstow.

In behalf of the latter he desired to say for him that he (Barstow) would do the best he could to be a good Councilman and that Barstow would serve them well.

J. C. Rued did not appear. Judge Fox said that Rued's name had been mentioned through a misunderstanding, and accordingly he withdrew it.

A motion by G. R. Lukens that the chairman of each delegation announce the vote for Councilmen-at-large, each delegate voting for four men, was carried.

The roll was called and the first three wards voted. The Fourth ward wanted more time, and finally the vote of that ward had to be taken by the calling of the delegates individually.

After the ballot, but before the vote was announced, the second Ward changed six votes fro Woolner to Welch.

The result of the ballot was as follows:

WARDS.	Barstow.	Cuvellier.	Stetson.	Chichester.	Welch.	Hardy.	Woolner.

COLLIER A SUCCESS AT THE MACDONOUGH.

"The Man From Mexico" was produced at the Macdonough Theater last night before a packed and delighted audience.

The same piece will be played with Willie Collier in the title role this evening, and then the engagement will come to a close.

The play is a life-study upon the humorous effect of abject misery. Willie Collier's "Benjamin Fitzhugh," as first revealed to the audience, is a gentleman who, while he might be guilty of an escapade of the kind that society always condones, could be depended upon to choose his associates with the greatest circumspection. Yet the second act finds him imprisoned at Blackwell's Island, the companion in misery of various undesirable people. Nor is this "Fitzhugh" cheerful in the face of misery and misfortune. He is funny, but he is funny because of this abject misery, and he remains so to the end, because he makes an honest effort to convince his wife that the thirty days he spent in jail on the island were spent in a trip to Mexico. The comedy of "The Man From Mexico" is direct, positive and effectual, and if any fault could be found with the play it would be that the humor is too continuous for rest.

Willie Collier is a comedian whose methods have steadily improved since the first came into notice, and now there are none who might not profit by the observation of the effective manner in which he makes points where none exist, his clever enunciations and his reposeful certainty. Mr. Collier is capable of great work, and it needs not the gift of prophecy to predict the eminence that will be his future.

Republican Platform.

The following is the Republican municipal platform adopted by the convention last evening:

"We, the committee on platform and resolution hereby report as follows:

"First—That we reaffirm the principles of the Republican party, as enunciated by the platform of the National Republican party at Chicago.

"Second—That we pledge ourselves anew in favor of the free public school system. We endorse the administration and national policy of our President McKinley.

"Third—That we are in favor of expending a reasonable proportion of the public monies for permanent public improvements.

"Fourth—That we are in favor of and pledge our nominees to an economical administration of the city government.

"Fifth—That we request the Legislature of this State to enact a primary election law that will insure to all political parties an opportunity for an open and honest vote for candidates of their own choice.

"Sixth—That we are in favor of the formation of a consolidated city and county government for the city of Oakland and vicinity at the earliest practicable time.

"Seventh—That the necessity of municipal ownership and control of the city's water supply is emphasized by the action of a majority of the present City Council of the city of Oakland authorizing private corporations to exact from the people rates that are unjust and oppressive, established in the interests of said corporations only. We demand of our nominees that they use every possible exertion to bring about such ownership.

"Resolved, That we, as the representatives of the Republican party of the city of Oakland, do hereby enter our protest against the election of D. M. Burns as United States Senator to represent the State of California, and that we earnestly request our members in the Legislature to vote against D. M. Burns."
